PRESIDENT ADVISED TO RETAIN MILES

SENATORS HOAR, HALE, ALLISON AND MOOMAS SEE HIM.

ACTION DEFERRED FEW WEEKS.

Interessors Say Veteran Should Be Held in Service Until Retirement
Period in August, 1903.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Appeals in behalf of Gen. Miles have been made to the President by Senators Hoar, Hale, Allison and McComas. Senator Foraker, who happened to be in the White House while Gen. Miles was under discussion, was drawn into the conference.

When the senatorial visitors departed, President Roosevelt said they had obtained from him a promise that no action would be immediately taken. Nothing is to be done during the next two weeks—while Secretary Root is in Cuba.

Gen. Miles' friends desire that he should be allowed to remain in his position until he is compelled to retire, in August, 1903, and they argued with the President that, as this date is only a little more than 15 months away, much unpleasant comment would be avoided by granting their request. They found President Roosevelt decidedly inclined to place Gen. Miles on the retired list immediately, being averse to continuing unpleasant relations. He listened attentively, however, to all that was said in Gen. Miles' behalf, and his promise to postpone action was regarded by the senators as a concession.

It is understood that friends of Gen. Miles have taken occasion to urge him not to antagonize further the administration, either by word or token, and it is believed that he will heed their counsel.

The determination of the President to retire Gen. Miles was made certain by the discovery that that officer had been in correspondence to secure information of advantage to the Democratic senators concerning the Philippine situation.

HOGG IS PLEASED WITH ENGLISHMEN

FORMER TEXAS GOVERNOR HAD FINE TIME WITH THEM.

BOASTS HIS AMERICANISM.

Too Much "Tomfoolery" About Presentation to King for Him to Submit to It.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Rotund, jolly and intensely American, former Gov. James Stephen Hogg of Texas returned from England on the Teutonic.

He was the most popular man aboard the boat on the way over. Mamma and pretty girls ran up to him to say goodby and lots of nice things at the end of the voyage.

Mr. Hogg has a voice like a lion's roar, and it could be heard all over the pier, full of a hearty good will and a reservoir of good nature that never runs dry.

"Oh, tut, tut!" he ejaculated, "let's drop the knee breeches incident. I don't want to talk about that foolishness. You know, they have some ancient customs over in London—tight trousers, tight vests, tight coats, swords and rooster feathers in your hat when you are presented to the King, and a lot of other tomfoolery. But I'm a good American to stand for that. There has been too much made of my refusal to meet the King."

"But, Joe Choate, there's a magnificent, splendid American for you. No American can go to London and not feel proud to have such an American there."

"I was most cordially treated wherever I went, and I was greatly impressed by the friendship of Englishmen for Americans. I am too much interested in the Texas oil fields to engage in politics. If they were to nominate Bryan again I believe he would be elected. Or Hill, if nominated, could be elected. It is certain that the next President will be a Democrat. The Republican party can't expect to slaughter our best men with impunity—such men as Miles, Dewey and Schley. They can't take the whole outfit, take them fore and aft, and then expect to smooth matters over at election time."

MURDERED MAN NOT SMITH

Body of Person Whom Wykoff Was Charged With Killing Was Wrongly Identified.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Capt. Cosgrove, chief of the detective bureau of Newark, N. J., sent yesterday to County Prosecutor Biker proof that George Roswell Smith, who was supposed to have been murdered by John Wykoff, is alive and a member of the United States Navy.

Wykoff, it is alleged, was the ringleader in the plot to effect a wholesale jail delivery which was frustrated Wednesday night by Warden Hoop.

The crime for which Wykoff is to be tried Monday was committed Oct. 18 on the city dock, Newark.

Papers found in the murdered man's clothing indicated he was George Roswell Smith. According to information received by Capt. Cosgrove, the murdered man was not Smith, but a person known variously as "Bill English" and "English Bill." The police now believe that this man had fallen in with Smith a short time prior to the murder and secured the papers before the murder.

DIVIDENDS ON FAIR SHARES

Columbian Exposition Stockholders
Will Receive 45 Cents on Each of Their $10 Shares.

CHICAGO, April 18.—The $450,000 which remains in the treasury of the World's Columbian Exposition Co. probably will be divided next week among 20,000 stockholders. The last lawsuit against the company has been decided, and the board of directors has concluded to distribute the money as soon as preliminary work can be accomplished.

The dividend, it is estimated, will amount to about 45 cents a share. Shares were sold for $10 about one-fourth of the 20,000 stockholders held one share each. The city will get about $225,000 as its dividend on the $450,000 bond issue.

The funds have been tied up all these years because of litigation against the World's Fair Co. About 30 suits were filed for damages, the claims aggregating nearly $500,000, and the money was held to meet possible judgments.

Most of the cases were decided against the complainants, however, judgments being secured for less than $1,000 of the entire amount.

There is no honor or profit in fooling the people, especially when they are your own neighbors and customers. Therefore our guarantee offer on Vinol is made in perfect good faith. Call at our store and get a bottle of Vinol at once, and if it does not help you after a reasonable trial we will return every cent you paid us for it.

We repeat the statement that every sick person should be willing to try Vinol on such favorable terms.

We can refer you to plenty of people right here in our own city who have been restored to health by Vinol, and people whose standing in the community is unquestionable.

You therefore must admit that we know what we are talking about when we say that Vinol will surely restore to health all persons who are all run down, feel worn and miserable, without appetite or ambition, caused perhaps by sickness during the winter. People who have been ill with the grippe or a severe fever recover strength and robustness very quickly under the VINOL treatment, and it is simply astonishing how much Vinol does for pale women and children,—weak and nursing mothers,—and especially does it promote the vitality of old people; it is a gentle stimulant without reaction.

Vinol you know is not a patent medicine; it is just the curative elements of cod liver oil combined with a little organic iron and a fine table wine, so that without any disagreeable features it is the grandest tonic reconstructor we know of. Delicious, appetizing and delicate of taste.

Call at our store and let us tell you more about Vinol. We never had anything sell like it and give such general satisfaction. It must therefore be good.

WHOLESALE CHAMP.

Pittsburgh at St. Louis.
Brooklyn at Boston.
Chicago at Cincinnati.
New York at Philadelphia.

Baseball is still the national sport.

The opening day attendance at the various National League parks Thursday of 53,000, the greatest in the history of the old organization, attests the fact. Eleven thousand was St. Louis' share in these great crowds.

The attendance is the more remarkable when it is considered that less than six weeks ago the existence of the National League and the prospect of its teams being in the field at all was problematical.

It is still further remarkable from the fact that the winter quarrelling and bickering of the National magnates and their lassitude in the face of the aggressive tactics of the American League had disgusted those who cared enough about the situation to follow it.

St. Louis had the largest opening crowd the Messrs. Robison have known since coming to St. Louis, and the same is true of the other cities.

The circumstance is attributed to various circumstances, and the conclusion is commonly drawn that the National League has the place in the sympathies of the people, as against the American organization.

Certainly many expressions of good will for the local management were heard at League Park yesterday, but the team which is fighting for the pennant should either climb that high, will in the end draw the crowd. The large attendance was probably only a tribute to the popular love of the sport.

NATIONAL THE BETTER.

A gentleman of some prominence in local business circles and some astuteness in a baseball way, made a bet before the game Thursday that the National League team would finish higher in the race than the American club for the respective flags.

On the face of it, betting even money on such a proposition appears wild, but analysis shows that the National has at least an even chance to turn the trick.

The American League collection is fostered in some respects, though strong on paper. Granting its strength to be what is claimed for it, Chicago, Baltimore, Boston and Philadelphia are generally considered higher in the plane of baseball. That gives the American League a strong chance to finish fifth, while it may do better.

The St. Louis National League Club has an even break with about six teams in point of strength. All have new teams, practically, and all are uncertain save Pittsburgh. The National has the advantage of a handicap to show well up in the first division.

With the assistance of the new mascot the National is expected to turn the trick and win the bet with something to spare.

SECOND BATTLE TODAY.

Pittsburgh will try it again with the Cardinals at League Park Friday afternoon, weather permitting.

Donovan is uncertain which of his staff will go to the firing line for the second conflict of the clubs, but said it was a toss up between Wicker and Murphy. The latter's score foot is better and he may be able to officiate.

Capt. Clarke announced that either Leary or Tannehill would be in the box for the visitors.

The game will be called at 3:30, as usual. Cantillon will umpire.

STORY OF THE GAME.

It was hard on the biggest opening-day crowd in the history of League Park to have lost the first game of the year by a miserable 1 to 0 score. It was especially hard, as the sympathies of the 11,000 persons present were altogether with the home team, and from the great "Ethiopian Voice" to Mayor Wells the assembly "rooted" for Donovan to win.

What tops off the brimming cup of "tough luck" was the unfortunate work of Kruger and Farrell in the sixth inning, when the solitary score of the game was made by Leach. Twice was a chance offered to retire the side and twice it was unaccepted by the home men.

Otherwise the game was as honey to the palate of Tannehill, and the famished fans were satisfied. It was something to have played Pittsburgh a 1-to-0 contest.

THE UNFORTUNATE SIXTH.

The sixth inning should be stricken from the records after it is described. It started with Tommy Leach, who found one of Yerkes' curves just to his liking, and drove out a single.

O'Connor, next up, hit to Kruger. Leach and O'Connor were speeding toward second and first respectively and as the ball came galloping down to the St. Louis shortstop the crowd, in its mind, saw the Pittsburgh finish in a neat double play. Kruger to Farrell to Hamilton.

The crowd was too active with its imagination, however, for Oom Paul forgot he was filling Wallace's shoes and thought he was Cupid Childs, for he juggled the grounder. When the ballon righted, Leach was on third and O'Connor

SAFE AT FIRST.

That was chance number one lost. With Leach on second and only one out the crowd became restless. It wanted a run and the breeze apparently was blowing in the right direction. Phillips hit in front right on the beam line, sending O'Connor

HALSEY-CABANNE AUTO RACE CALLED OFF PRELIMINARY TO THE RACE WHICH WASN'T RUN.

Photographed by the Post-Dispatch.

Cabanne Was Unfortunate With His Machine, and No Start Was Made.

A scene of brilliancy was presented at the intersection of the north and south Clayton roads Thursday noon while the car race auto enthusiasts were waiting for the race between the carriages of H. C. Halsey and L. D. Cabanne.

The race was to have been over a course of 80 miles to Manchester and return for a purse of $500.

Much interest was manifested by the friends of the respective chauffeurs. Once before they had raced over the same road, with the advantage going to Halsey.

Among those who were present to witness the race and follow the racers over part of the course in their automobiles were H. S. Runyon, who was accompanied by Miss Chappell, J. H. Howard, H. S. Turner and J. E. Baker, Jerome Scholten. In whose automobiles were Baker, Homan and Sam Jones, and C. H. Martin on a motor-cycle.

Unfortunately, Cabanne's carriage had met with a series of misfortunes which prevented it from starting in the race. He had run into a ditch on the previous night, overturning the carriage and seriously damaging one wheel. During the party, preliminary to the race, the touch of some curious persons broke the glass tube in the water gauge which puts the machine out of commission for racing. The contest will possibly take place in the near future.

Automobile racing promises to become a popular sport. The roads about St. Louis are ideal for it and there are many swift and beautiful machines of all the latest makes in St. Louis to make a large field.

well played on both sides as to be colorless. The wind-up was tame, though the crowd was standing on tiptoe waiting for some break in the monotonous tawling of clappers by the home team. The break never came, however, and the sixth went down to history as naught.

REFEREE CALLED IT NO CONTEST

Eddie Santry Was Disabled in a Contest With Tommy Sullivan at Chicago Thursday.

CHICAGO, April 18.—In the Santry-Tommy Sullivan contest at Apollo Hall Referee Johnny McInerney decided it was "no contest." After about a minute and a half of boxing in the third round Santry fell out of a clinch to the floor and Sullivan fell on top of him. Santry could not arise and the referee called it a "no contest." BASEBALL PARAGRAPHS.

"And I heard a Great Voice."

"We don't miss Hildrick much," was what it said.

Eleven thousand other people thought the same thing.

The new mascot lost his first game, but his father, John Robinson, promises he will do better.

The American League made its schedule first, but the National got first money. The last shall be first.

Adams of Herick was first signed by Manager Donovan. Adams was the first of the Cardinal pitchers to play out a full game.

Kruger probably felt worse about the loss of Thurley's game than any of the team. Because Wallace was a phenomenon is no reason why Kruger may not be a better pitcher.

Pittsburgh's appearance is always an excuse for smiles at League Park. Last season they drew 55,000 in one series. Yesterday the smiles were banished.

"Jack" O'Connor was well received by the crowd. A crowd took him in the direction of the "Cardinals' bench" and someone was unkind enough to remark, "Look out for Murphy."

Wagner demonstrated his right to the title of the greatest ballplayer in the country for all-time when he hit home runs in the first and second innings of the game.

"PLAY BALL, BOYS!"

The Post-Dispatch Public and Parochial School Baseball League season opens Saturday, and pupils of 25 schools are so much interested in the contests which are scheduled for that day that they do not care whether Burkett plays with the Cardinals this year or not, for the time being, whether the Cardinals play at all.

Twenty-six games means 52 teams, and by a simple process of multiplication which anyone can make, 52 teams means 104 players will take part in Saturday's games.

A little more multiplying, with the number of schoolboys who witness a match game as a factor, shows that not less than 50,000 boys will attend the games, more than twice as many as the Cardinals ever drew.

EACH MEMBER OF THE WINNING TEAM WILL RECEIVE A HANDSOME TROPHY FROM THE POST-DISPATCH AT THE END OF THE SEASON.

The series of the games have in most cases been agreed upon and forwarded to this office.

Those sent in will be found above. It is presumed the other games were arranged too late to be handed in for publication in Friday's issue.

The contests will be played as arranged, whether all of them have appeared in the Post-Dispatch or not.

Captains of winning teams will remember to telephone to the Post-Dispatch, immediately following each game, the score.

This rule must be observed, in order that the winning teams can be announced in Sunday's issue and the schedule for the following Saturday made out.

EXCHANGE. Bell or Kinloch system.

In case of any dispute, be sure and play the game out and make your contest. If the game is forfeited by the offenders, "Ringers" on your teams means expulsion as well as forfeiture.

VARICOCELE

Varicocele is a weakened and broken-down condition of the Spermatic Veins and sexual circulation, due in the great majority of cases to sexual indiscretion. It makes no difference what the cause, be it strain, injury or abuse, it is important that it be cured for in time it will result in total impotency. That Varicocele is one of the most serious and treacherous diseases afflicting mankind has been proven beyond all doubt. It not only will undermine the physical strength, drainage and depress the mental faculties, the stagnant blood in the veins produces a complete loss of sexual power, and ultimately produces a complete loss of sexual power.

I cure Varicocele safely, painlessly and Permanently. My method of cure has been used in thousands of the most aggravated cases without one single failure or recurrence. Under my treatment every trace of weakness and disease quickly disappears. The stagnant blood is driven from the weakened veins, soreness and swelling vanish, all drains of vigor cease, the weakened seminal ducts are strengthened, a healthy circulation of pure blood is established, the wasted organs are enlarged, you secure strength to every way, and soon will realize that confidence, power and sense of well being which accompany good health and robust manhood. My treatment has stood the severest test. I have prepared a multitude of men for the duties and pleasures of married life. Avoid experiments. The sexual organs are the very mainstay of the body and mind. I have seen many men ruined for life through incompetent and unskilled treatment. I am thoroughly familiar with every treatment in vogue for the cure of Varicocele, and know from actual experience that I can give you the very quickest, safest and most reliable cure known to medical science.

THE NEWEST BOOKS

A Great Novel.
With "The Valley of Decision," Edith Wharton enters the ranks of great novelists. In breadth and depth of vision, searching glance and power of understanding, this book recalls the great days of English fiction—Hawthorne and Thackeray. The subject is not new. The petty complexities of a petty Italian principality are not attractive to the comparatively simple, forthright mind and heart of a modern man or woman. But Mrs. Wharton follows the labyrinth with sure and confident step, convincing and winning. The hero is, like all real heroes, neither ancient, medieval, nor modern. He is a man, a human figure, natural and engaging, but pathetic because of the feebleness which is so proper to man.

Odo was duke of the little state. In his childhood the spirit of the new age touched him. In his youth a woman helped along the development. When he came to his throne the French revolution was about to convulse the world, and he must needs apply the glittering abstractions in his own dominions. He found out that ideas were wherein he declares that "The pulpit should instead of careless assumptions and vague rhetorical declamations keep silence until it has something to say." Had the professor taken this precaution, the book entitled "The Carpenters' Prophecy" would have died before it was born. The Rev. Thomas B. Gregory has a very different opinion in his review in the American. "Prof. Pearson, the clear-eyed, kindly souled man, has restored Jesus to us. After an exile of 20 years in the professor's book-meets us with the old-time salutation of good cheer and peace. It is I; he is not afraid. I have read all the lives of Christ, and I am obliged to say that this one by the excommunicated heretic eclipses them all."

Herbert A. Stone & Co., Chicago, are the publishers.

The indications are that 50,000 copies of Mr. Carnegie's new book, "The Empire of Business," will be sold within a short time. This volume contains the results of Mr. Carnegie's long business career, which is certainly more successful and extraordinary than that of any other man in America. The author has covered fully the important points in business conduct and manage-

DOROTHY'S DEATH IS UNEXPLAINED

JAMES PAUL'S LITTLE DAUGHTER'S WOUNDS FATAL.

FOUND HURT IN STABLE YARD.

She Told Her Father Before She Died That a Horse Had Kicked Her.

Dorothy Parks, aged 2, daughter of James Parks, of 735 Aubert avenue, died Thursday night at the Missouri Baptist Sanitarium from injuries received during the afternoon in some manner not yet explained.

The child was found about 6 o'clock in the feed yard adjoining Charles Honig's livery stable, 728 North King's highway, by Joseph Edwards, a negro, employed at the stable. The child was bleeding. He carried her to her home.

Two horses were in the yard, tied close to the fence, and the child's father believes she was kicked by one of the animals. The father of the livery stable says that the girl could have fallen down an embankment between the back yard of her home and the stable yard.

Teamster Called.
Edwards says he was told by a passing teamster that a child had been hurt in the feed yards. On going to the stable yard he met the little girl, whom he recognized as Mr. Parks' child, walking toward him. She was bleeding at the mouth. He carried her to her home.

The feed yards are about 40 feet wide, and are fenced by a fence except at the south, where the stable wall bounds it. The two horses in the yard are tightly tethered to the fence.

Mr. Parks says that the child told him shortly before she died that she had been kicked by the horse.

The physicians at the sanitarium pronounced the child's death due to internal wounds of the abdomen.

The little girl came home with her mother, or "Aunt Mollie," said Mr. Parks, and wanted to play in the yard. We let her go out and home from her. We did not know just going out to look for her when the negro brought her to the house.

England's Rising Poet.
Stephen Phillips, the author of "Ulysses," is now in his 34th year. He is a typical Englishman, fond of outdoor sports, and enthusiastic cricketeer, and a popular member of the English clubs. He is said to be an all-round genial companion, quite free from the eccentricities with which most poets are afflicted. Phillips has been placed upon the civil list of that land, and so, in a measure at least, he is relieved from the cares of money-making, which is fortunate, for like many literary men he is not fond of securing his business affairs. It is a noticeable fact that Mr. Phillips inherits his poetic temperament from his mother, Lloyd, Charles Lamb's literary friends. His first realization of poetic fame is believed to have come to him in his 15th year, when his mother read aloud to him Coleridge's "Christabel," and from that time he determined to be a poet. From 1888 to 1892 he followed the Shakespearean role, appearing in many plays, contrary to popular fame, he is necessary to the production of a work which a man of genius intends to submit to the world.
